Friday is the sixth day of camp. It is our last day at Camp Kiwanis. After breakfast we clean our cabin and pack our clothes up.

At around 1:00 or 1:30 my parents or caregiver will come to pick me up. We will pack my gear in the car. We will pack up my clothes, sleeping bag, and anything else I brought to camp.

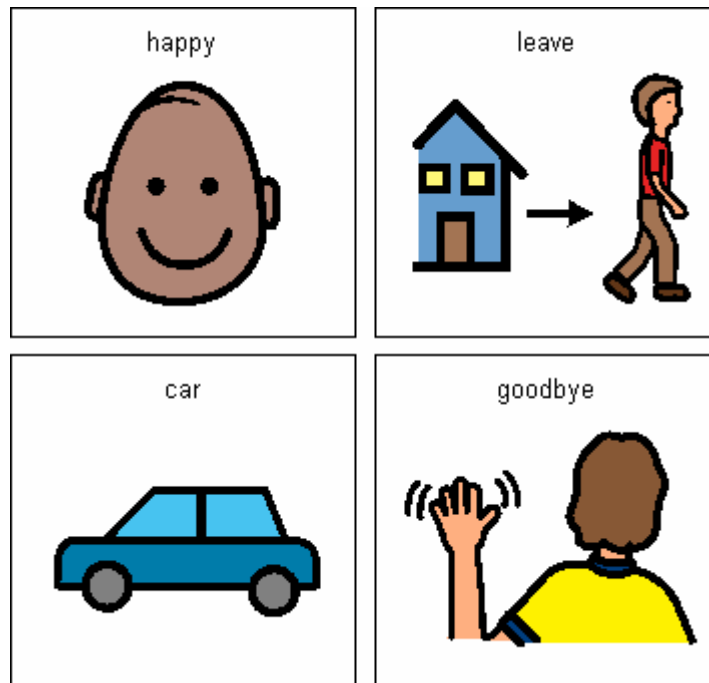

All the campers will go home on Friday.
All the counselors will go home, too.
No one will stay at camp after Friday.

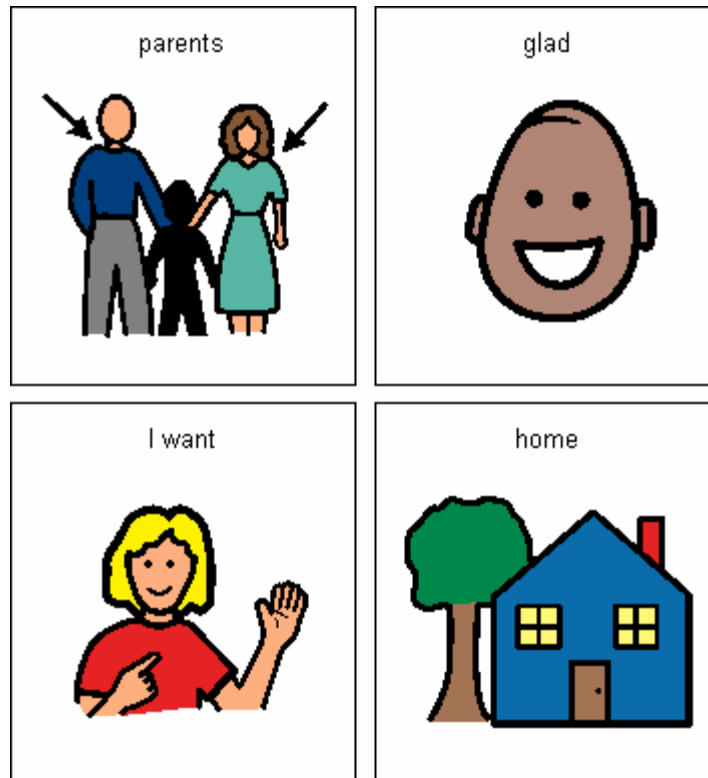

It is a little sad when we have to go home. We might miss our new friends. We might miss the fun activities we did.

I may be sad for a while. But, I will remember all the good times we had, and all the fun we had. Maybe I can come back to Kiwanis Camp next year!

I will try to be happy when I leave Kiwanis Camp.
I will try to get in my car right away and wave good-bye. Maybe I can write to my new friends!
Maybe I can come back to Kiwanis Camp!

My parents or caregiver will be glad I had a good time at Kiwanis Camp. They will be glad to have me back home. I will probably be glad to be home, too!
