

ON-SITE RULES

Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp

1. Pets are not allowed on Camp property.
2. Drinking of alcoholic beverages is not allowed on the grounds.
3. Parking is allowed in designated areas only. Parking is not allowed on any other part of the campsite. Parking is limited.
4. The use of any type of off-road vehicle on Camp property is prohibited.
5. RV's may park on-site, but are not allowed to use the Camp's electricity or dump on Camp property.
6. Use only the buildings that are part of your rental contract as there may be other user groups in Camp.
7. Food is not allowed in sleeping areas.
8. Smoking is not allowed in any Camp building. Only designated areas outdoors are to be used for smoking. Smokers should use appropriate receptacles for cigarette disposal.
9. Do not climb on to the roofs, and do not allow children to climb on them. Serious personal injury or damage to the roof could occur.
10. Please use caution when walking on the property and respect the environment by staying on established trails. The Camp is located on US Forest Service land with uneven terrain, rocks, and a creek. Do not pick plants or gather firewood. Wood is available for purchase.
11. The Adventure Program elements are located throughout the Camp's property. For safety and liability reasons, the elements are to be used only under the supervision of a Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp staff instructor. Adventure Programs must be scheduled in advance.
12. Do not litter. Dispose of all trash in proper containers.
13. All breakage and/or damage to property and equipment must be reported immediately to the Site Manager.
14. Campfires are to be built in designated areas only, and only in accordance with Forest Service special conditions restrictions. Check with the Site Manager first for the appropriate site. A pail of water and a shovel must be placed near the campfire. Gathering wood from the ground or breaking from trees is prohibited. This is in compliance with the US Forest Service rules and regulations and in consideration of the fragile alpine environment. The Site Manager will review fire safety procedures with your group.
15. Certain areas of the Camp, including but not necessarily limited to the fish pond, the pool, the challenge course and the horse corral, are reserved for the use of Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp staffed programs.
16. For your group's security, advise the Site Manager of any stranger on the property. Do not approach a stranger alone.
17. In case of emergency requiring Camp evacuation, advise your group to meet in the field in front of Fanning Hall to determine if evacuation towards highway 26 is necessary.

NOTE: Your signature on the Rental Contract ensures that you and your group have read and agree to the Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp's USER and ON-SITE RULES.

USER RULES

Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp

Welcome to the Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp. We appreciate your cooperation with the following rules:

1. A Certificate of Insurance is required from the user's insurance carrier showing a minimum of $1,000,000 liability coverage.
2. The following ratios are required: one adult/staff to ten youth (1:10) ages 17 and under. Campers with disabilities: one adult/staff to five (1:5) with mild mental disabilities; one adult/staff to four (1:4) with mild disabilities (needing occasional assistance); one adult/staff to two (1:2) with severe disabilities (needing frequent or constant assistance); one adult/staff to one (1:1) with severe/profound mental and multiple disabilities. We recommend at least one adult have current CPR and First Aid certifications.
3. Rental groups should gather the following information before they arrive at Camp: names and addresses of all participants; emergency contact names and numbers; a listing of any persons with known allergies or health conditions requiring treatment, restriction, or other accommodation while on site; signed permission to seek emergency treatment or signed religious waivers for minors without a parent on site.
4. Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp, Inc. will not provide health care personnel or treatment to rental groups or individuals and groups leasing the camp facility. The user's group is responsible for emergency transportation. A vehicle must always be available when any member of the group is on Camp property. The vehicle must be appropriately equipped for the season and must have enough fuel to reach primary emergency locations. Emergency telephone numbers and addresses are posted by each telephone, including the pay phone in Fanning.
5. User groups will be advised of the location of first aid kits. Should any accident/incident/injury/illness occur requiring medical attention, notify the Site Manager.
6. User groups are not allowed to bring pets, firearms, ammunition, gasoline, flammable liquids, explosives, fireworks, poisonous substances or power equipment to the Camp.
7. The user's group is responsible for leaving the rental site as clean as it is found. A departure checklist will be given upon arrival. Your group will be charged for any cleaning needed.
8. The users shall assume full responsibility for breakage of Camp equipment and damage to property.
9. The Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp assumes no responsibility for damaged, lost or stolen personal belongings.
10. The Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp reserves the right to refuse use of the camp to anyone at its discretion and/or evict anyone exhibiting unlawful or unacceptable conduct. If evicted, deposits will be kept for repair of any damages found. The users understand and agree that holding the deposits do not in any way limit the Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp from taking action to recover amounts necessary to repair damages to the Camp caused by the users.
11. Any activity that has an element of potential danger is not allowed to be conducted on Camp property.
12. The Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp reserves the right to cancel any reservation or to instruct any group to vacate the Camp in the event of heavy snowfall or any other unusual condition (i.e. power outages) which makes it impractical to keep the Camp open. The users shall not hold the Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp responsible for the evacuation from the Camp or any difficulties which may arise due to weather conditions or other conditions beyond its control. Rental charges or refunds will be prorated.
13. The Site Manager, or other designated representative as authorized by the Executive Director, has full authority to enforce regulations.

NOTE: Your signature on the Rental Contract ensures that you and your group have read and agree to the Mt. Hood Kiwanis Camp's USER and ON-SITE RULES.
